

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

Designing Your Poster

Designing your show poster can be a great deal of fun, and the finished products make excellent souvenirs for the cast and crew. This worksheet will help you to design and print your show's poster and can also be used for poster projects in class.

First decide on a budget for the posters: $_____

Poster Content

Show:
Presented by:
Dates:				Times:
Location:
Address:
Ticket prices		Adults:	Students:	Faculty:	Children:	Matinee: Other:
*How must you credit the publisher (see script):
Author(s), etc.

Poster Design

Who will design the posters?
What size will they be?
How many colors will be used?
When is the deadline for completing the design?

Completing the Project

How many posters will be printed?
Who will print them?
When is the deadline for getting them printed?
When does the printer need the art to meet the deadline?
Who will pick them up from the printer?

* Crediting the publisher is a legal and contractual requirement in most cases and is generally specified in the first few pages of the script.